

New Orleans native Lyrae Norman-Kinchen is an expert in the art of event design and remains an intricate creative designer reveling as the driving force behind the innovative Lyrae Norman Event Productions, LLC. As a certified wedding planner she supersedes simply by having captivated the skill of design at a young age. Her mother, a then floral designer and tailoress was—a well known designer of weddings. Mentored by her aunt, an accomplished politician who exposed Lyrae to her natural talent of public service, political campaigning, networking and contract negotiating.

Lyrae savors a versed background in management and business administration which attributes to an undeniable set of skills, training and certification equating to vast areas of planning and development. For LNEP, negotiating, planning and strong interpersonal skills are the strengths and winning solutions exercised through coordinating and implementation of countless weddings, fundraisers and social events.

Eating in her journey as a certified wedding planner, while leading with impeccable taste and a keen eye for detail, Lyrae relishes in a tenure upwards of twenty years. Her work has gained recognition as an elite wedding consultant in addition to her success as a fundraising developer. Her success has been built on listening, where she takes the time to fully understand her client's ideas, preferences and goals. An expert in the art of design, Lyrae Norman Event Productions founder has earned a reputation for turning one's vision into a reality.

Well traveled across the globe, Lyrae has lived abroad in Japan and studies many facets of the Japanese culture such as fine dining and festival celebrations. LNEP can create as elaborate as an intimate beach setting to as unique as the day to day fast pace of corporate gatherings. Lyrae and her team of seasoned professionals understands that vision is important to every client; therefore client relationships are viewed as collaborative efforts—all of which are valued and nurtured in an effort to captivate one's vision. Thus, making it the central focus of planning and design. Lyrae Norman Event Productions, believes that there is a sublime connection between the mastery of details that leads to the creation of astonishment. Defining projects have landed certified wedding planner Lyrae Norman an array of deeming opportunities by designing events for the likes of spectacular organizations as the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival, Louis Armstrong Summer Jazz Camp, Louisiana Black Caucus' Jazz Scholarship Brunch during Bayou Classic, Xavier University Preparatory high school in conjunction with The Party Café and Events as well as Watson Memorial to name a few.

A Lyrae Norman Event Productions experience is believed to be one that ensures every occasion remains a special event. More importantly a chance to make great memories. Therefore, no matter what type of event one is planning, LNEP can bring your vision to life and guarantee you'll make a lasting impression on your guests and constituents. Lyrae and her team has built a commendable representation by combining the client's ideas with LNEP's insight in pursuit of developing the perfect event designed, inevitably reflecting each client's personal style. The design mogul has also cornered a niche within the entertainment industry providing the ability to secure various New Orleans' musicians for performances at festivals, concerts and conventions amidst the United States and abroad.